

Photo by the Air Castle

MR. AND MRS. STEVEN KORCH

The bride's father, the Rev. Roy Kraft, and her uncle, the Rev. Ralph Kraft of Los Altos, officiated when Ruth Jeanette Kraft became the bride of Steven Korch.

Twin Lakes Baptist Church was the setting for the December 16 wedding performed at 7 o'clock.

The bride, whose parents reside at 24 Eastridge Drive, also was given in marriage by her father. She chose a Victorian style wedding gown of ivory faille featuring a raised waistline, camelot sleeves, high collar and softly gathered skirt which fell into a chapel train. Cluny lace formed the rounded yoke, lower sleeve, and a deep flounce at the hemline.

A matching lace ruffled cap held her chapel length illusion veil, and she carried a bouquet of carnations, stephanotis white statice and trailing ivy.

Mrs. John Thill was matron of honor in a rose peau de soie empire gown accented with ivory lace at the neck and sleeves.

Gowned identically in purple, orchid and pink were the bridesmaids, Anne Cureton, Janice Killingbeck and Janice Bambula, the bridegroom's sister.

They carried cascades of pink carnations, baby's breath, purple statice and purple straw flowers with fir greens. Janice and Joyce Hardison were candlelighters.

Charles Steven, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bambula of Rio del Mar, asked his brother, Charles Bambula, to be his best man.

Seating the guests were Ruth's brothers, Dan and Jim Kraft; Tom Anderson (filling in for her brother, Dave), Joe Otto and Ken Mix. Todd Kraft was ringbearer.

Mrs. Paul Barton was the organist. Soloists were Paul Barton who sang "Love Is a Power", Jim Blanco, "Wedding Song", and Liz Bishop, "Thank You Lord".

Assisting in serving at the church reception were Ruth's sisters-in-law, Mrs. Dave Kraft, Mrs. Dan Kraft and Mrs. Jim Kraft; Mrs. Bob Pease, Mrs. Greg Stirling, Chris Bishop and Mrs. Lillian Cureton.

Passing the guest book were Virginia Ottowa of Santa Cruz and Ruth's roommate at BIOLA, Deena Hutchinson of Phoenix.

Special music during the reception was provided by Jim Blanco, guitarist, and Mrs. Barton.

Among guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Frances Bushnell of Berkeley and Steven's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bambula of Oceanside.

The newlyweds honeymooned in northern California.

Ruth is a graduate of Soquel High and Steve was graduated from Watsonville High School. They will make their home in La Habra where they are attending BIOLA.

Steve, who served 2 years in the Army with 10 months in Vietnam, is employed by First Presbyterian Church of Anaheim.